

Curriculum Vitae

Moshe Halbertal

Born in Montevideo, 1958

Present Position

John and Golda Cohen Professor of Jewish Thought and Philosophy at the Hebrew University; Gurs Professor of Law NYU Law School

Education:

- 1984 BA (cum laude) Hebrew University, Jewish Thought and Philosophy
- 1989 Ph.D. Hebrew University Dissertation: "Values as Interpretive criteria in Jewish Law"

Academic Positions:

- 1988-1991 Fellow at Harvard Society of Fellows
- 1991-1992 Fellow at the program of Ethics and the Professions, Harvard
- 1991-1992 Lecturer at Harvard program of Social Studies
- 1992-1995 Lecturer at Hebrew University, Departments of Jewish Thought and Philosophy
- 1992-2008 Fellow at the Hartman Institute for advanced Jewish Studies
- 1996-1999 Senior lecturer at Hebrew University
- 1996 Visiting Professor at Harvard University
- 1999- Full Professor, Hebrew University
- 2000 Visiting Professor at University of Pennsylvania
- 2002- Gruss Professor at NYU Law School
- 2005- Member of the Academic Committee and teacher at Mandel Ins.

2010 – Elected member of Israel’s national academy of Arts and Sciences

2011 – Visiting Professor Harvard University

2011 – 2018 Professor IDC

2014 - Visiting Professor Yale University

2018 – Visiting Professor Harvard Univeristy

Awards:

1989 Kenedy Lee Prize for distinguished Ph.D.

1992 Alon Prize, Hebrew University

1999 Bruno Award of the Rothschild Foundation

2000 Goren Goldstein Prize for the best book in Jewish Studies between 1997-2000

2008 Honorary Doctorate Jewish Theological Seminary

2014 Jewish Book Award for Maimonides: Life and Thought

2021 Finalist, Jewish Book Award for Nahmanides: Law and Mysticism

2021 Elected member of The American Philosophical Society